

CHELSEA SELF-GUIDED TOUR

Jack Shainman

513 w. 20th

524 West 24th Street

Tyler Mitchell

Dreaming in Real Time – 513 West 20th Street

I Can Make You Feel Good – 524 West 24th Street

Paula Cooper
521 W 21 Street

Sarah Charlesworth

Hauser & Wirth
542 West 22nd Street

Philip Guston 1969-1979

<https://www.hauserwirth.com/hauser-wirth-exhibitions/31976-philip-guston-1969-1979>

Matthew Marks
526 W. 22nd Street

Jasper Johns New Work on Paper

Dia Chelsea
537 W. 22nd

Lucy Raven

Whitney Museum New Exhibitions

David Hammons / on permanent view at Pier 52 / a 2 min walk from the Whitney Museum along the Hudson

<https://whitney.org/exhibitions/david-hammons-days-end>

My Barbarian

<https://whitney.org/exhibitions/my-barbarian>

Jennifer Packer: The Eye Is Not Satisfied With Seeing

<https://whitney.org/exhibitions/jennifer-packer>

And for those of you who would like to take a walk a little further out.....

David Zwirner Gallery (new gallery space)
52 Walker

Kandis Williams

A Line

David Zwirner is pleased to open 52 Walker, a new David Zwirner gallery programmed by Ebony L. Haynes, on Thursday, October 28. The inaugural exhibition, A Line, will debut new works by Kandis Williams, whose versatile practice spans collage, performance, video, assemblage, and installation. Williams' work interrogates issues of race, nationalism, authority, and eroticism. This will be the artist's first solo presentation in New York.